Chapter 1 by lauryn

There was a girl named Meghan she was born in scoot land. When she was little she left with only her father and moved to New York city. Eleven years latter Meghan is now in middle school. Meghan is one of those girls who is shy but can speak her mind only when she wants. She has a good amount of friends. All her friends like to call her meg for short. her favorite places to go in the summer is scoot land even though she has to stays away from her mother. She enjoys spending time with her friends in scoot land too. Once she asked if her school friends could come but her father said no so that was the end of that talk. Meg loves going to school and she always comes home late. She does not like her father that much but she enjoys his company. Five years later she is in high school now for her first year. some of her friends had left but she did not mind she had to focus on getting in to college. She wants to go to San Le dale in scoot land. Her father said no way you can not go to a college in scoot land. so that was the end of her dream but she still worked hard so she could get into another school called eel deal min it is a school in Greece. Her mother was Greek and her father was Scottish. The last year of high school she was going to sigh up for the two schools San Le dale and eel deal min. Which school is she going to go to and what will happen next in her love story.....
